STEP 2

Describe it

The describer explains the word without the 4 banned words. Their partner guesses. A checker from another pair watches.

Stuck? Start your clue like this

It's a kind of ...

It's a kind of food / job / place.

It's a person who ...

It's a person who works with animals.

It's a place where ...

It's a place where you can swim.

You use it to ...

You use it to open a door.

You do this when ...

You do this when you are tired.

You feel like this when ...

You feel like this when you lose.

It's the opposite of ...

It's the opposite of quiet.

It's similar to ..., but ...

It's similar to a car, but bigger.

Guesser: "Is it a ...?" · "Can you say that another way?" · "Can you give me an example?"

Easy mode: of the 4 banned words, only the 2 above the dotted line count.
The word itself and any part of it are always banned.

STEP 3

Stuck? Start here

Eight sentence starters help the describer begin a clue.
Easy mode: only the 2 words above the dotted line count.

PRINTABLE CARDS + NOTES

No tablets? Print the cards. Every page in color and B&W.

Daily Life cards 1 to 10 of 25

Beginner

A1-A2

SAY IT

I would rather ___ because ___.

I don't want to ___. I would rather ___.

I would rather ___. It is more fun / easier.

Example: I would rather ride a bike because it is fun and healthy.

REACT

Me too!

Really? Why?

Not me!

I think so too.

Intermediate

B1-B2

SAY IT

I'd rather ___ than ___ because ___.

If I had to choose, I'd ___ because ___.

I'd definitely ___. The main reason is that ___.

Example: I'd rather travel alone than travel with a big group of friends because I like to choose where I go.

REACT

I see what you mean, but ____.

That's a good point.

I feel the same way.

Really? I'd choose the other one.

Advanced

C1

SAY IT

Given the choice, I'd opt to ___, mainly because ___.

Part of me would rather ___, but in the end I'd ___ because ___.

It depends on ___, but on balance I'd ___.

Example: Given the choice, I'd opt to hear an uncomfortable truth, mainly because I can't fix a problem I don't know about.

REACT

That's a fair point, but ____.

That's an interesting way to look at it.

I'm not entirely convinced.

I can see both sides, although ____.

Keep it going

All levels

Why?

What about you?

Can you give an example?

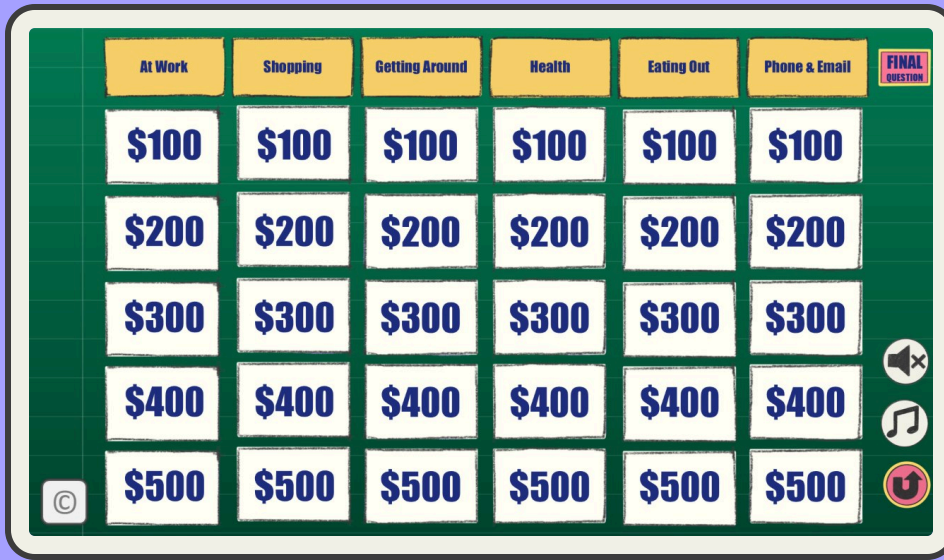

Have you ever ___?

What if ___?

Do you agree?

ONE WHOLE TURN
