HOW TO PLAY

1. Split the class into teams. The first team picks a category and a dollar value on the board.
2. Read the question. The team answers, then click the answer button to check.
3. Correct? The team wins the dollar value. Wrong? Another team may steal.
4. The Daily Double hides behind one cell: that team wagers first, then doubles it if they get it right.
5. After the board is cleared, every team wagers on the Final Question. Highest total wins.

TYPE IN YOUR OWN QUESTIONS

1. Open the deck in Google Slides (or PowerPoint) in edit mode, not Present.
2. Board slide: click each CATEGORY plate and type your category name (about 14 letters fits).
3. Question slides: click the text box and type your question. The answer slide is the next slide.
4. Final Question slide: type the final question; its answer is on the slide after it.
5. Leave the buttons, the dollar values and the links alone. Press Present and play.

Guess Who? Class Edition

A whole class Who am I? mystery game for any subject. Four clues, one at a time, guess early for more points. Plus the classic Guess Who board for pairs.

How to play (on screen)

1. Split the class into teams. Pick a mystery from the round menu.
2. Click Next clue to show the clues one at a time. Teams may guess after any clue, once per clue.
3. A right guess after clue 1 scores 4 points, after clue 2 scores 3, after clue 3 scores 2, after clue 4 scores 1.
4. Click Reveal to show the answer. A wrong guess costs nothing, but that team must wait for the next clue.
5. Play a round of six mysteries. Highest score wins.

Make it your own subject

1. Open the game in Google Slides (or PowerPoint) in edit mode.
2. Each mystery has four clue slides and a reveal slide. Click the clue text and type your own clues; type the answer on the reveal slide.
3. Keep clue 1 vague and clue 4 nearly a giveaway, so early guesses are worth the risk.
4. Press Present and play. Three rounds, 18 mysteries, any subject.

Partner play

1. Who am I? cards: print and cut. The reader keeps the card hidden and reads the clues one at a time; the partner guesses. The answer is printed on the card. Score by the clue number, then swap.
2. Classic Guess Who: print two boards. Each partner secretly picks one character (draw a mystery card). Take turns asking yes-or-no questions about looks, glasses, hats, animals or people, and cross off characters that do not fit.
3. The first partner to name the other's character wins. Shuffle the mystery cards and play again.

What's included

An editable Google Slides Who am I? game (3 rounds, 18 mysteries, 4 clues each, also opens in PowerPoint) · team score sheet · 18 Who am I? cards with the answer on the card · the classic Guess Who board with 16 characters and their mystery cards · the answer key · color and ink-saver black-and-white · US Letter and A4. Sample mysteries written for grades 2-5.

How the game works

This is a table game, not a whole-class game. The card has to stay hidden from the guessers, so it is never put on the board. A table of 6 splits into 3 pairs and shares one tablet, or one pile of printed cards.

1. The describer takes the tablet or the top card. Only that person looks at it.
2. A checker from another pair reads the same card. Their only job is to catch banned words.
3. The describer talks and their partner guesses. Every word guessed is one point.
4. A banned word means that card scores nothing. Move on to the next one.
5. After 60 seconds, write the score on the table's sheet and pass the tablet along.
6. Partners swap who describes each round, so everybody talks.

Six rounds is about 30 minutes, and every student describes at least twice.

Deal one subject to review that unit, or shuffle all 100 for a mixed game.

Scoring is peer checked, so the teacher never has to judge an answer.

Tables of 6

This is a table game, not a whole-class game

The card must stay hidden from the guessers, so it is never shown on the board. Each table of 6 splits into 3 pairs and plays with one tablet, or one pile of printed cards, passed around the table. Every table plays at the same time.

Set up (3 minutes)

1. Tables of 6. Partners sit next to each other, so 3 pairs per table.
2. Give each table one score sheet and a pencil, and either one tablet showing the deck or one pile of cards face down.
3. Pairs decide their order. Pair 1 goes first.
4. You keep the clock for the whole room: 60 seconds a turn.

Read this out

"You are playing in pairs. When it is your turn, one of you looks at the card and describes the word so your partner can say it. You may not say the word itself, and you may not say any of the four words listed under it. Someone from another pair watches your screen and checks. You get 60 seconds. Every word your partner gets is one point. Then the tablet passes on."

A turn, step by step

1. Describer takes the tablet or the top card. Only that person looks at it.
2. Checker from another pair sits so they can see it too. Their only job is to catch banned words.
3. Describe. The describer talks; their partner guesses out loud. Right answer, tap next and keep going.
4. Banned word? The checker says "banned". That card scores nothing, move to the next one.
5. Time. When the 60 seconds are up, write the pair's score on the sheet.
6. Pass. The tablet goes to the next pair. Inside a pair, swap who describes each round.

The rules a class will test

- No part of the word: no "sounds like", no first letter, no spelling it.
- No gestures and no drawing. Words only.
- Skipping is allowed, but a skipped card scores nothing.
- The checker's call is final. Arguing costs the pair that card.

Timing for one period

Set up 3 min · 6 rounds of about 4 min (60 seconds of play plus passing and scoring) · add up and announce 4 min. About 30 minutes, and every student describes at least twice. Short period? Play 4 rounds.

What is in the deck

Geography (25) · History (25) · Literature (25) · Science (25). Deal one subject at a time to review that unit, or shuffle all 100 for a mixed game.
